THE BIBLE

"When I am tired, the Bible is my bed;
Or in the dark, the Bible is my light;
When I am hungry, it is vital bread;
Or fearful, it is armor for the fight.
When I am sick, 'tis healing medicine;
Or lonely, thronging friends I find therein.
If I would work, the Bible is my tool;
Or play, it is a harp of happy sound.
If I am ignorant, it is my school;
If I am sinking, it is solid ground.
If I am cold, the Bible is my fire;
And wings, if boldly I aspire.
Should I be lost, the Bible is my guide;
Or naked, it is raiment, rich and warm.
Am I imprisoned, it is ranges wide;
Or tempest-tossed, a shelter from the storm
Would I adventure, 'tis a gallant sea;
Or would I rest, it is a flowery lea.
Does gloom oppress? The Bible is a sun.
Or ugliness? It is a garden fair."
—Author Unknown.

MY PREACHER

"I owe him enough of my time to help in his work whenever he may need me.
"I owe him trust that he may be free to serve the church unhampered by criticism and fault-finding.
"I owe him respect as the ambassador of God, sent to teach me a better way of living than the selfish, sordid existence I might be guilty of but for his guidance.
"I owe him prayer that God may make his services a blessing to every one with whom he comes in contact."

IF THE COLLECTION PLATE PEEVES YOU, READ THIS

Any church that is alive needs revenue. Only dead churches do not call on their members to give. If there are those who say that your church is always needing and calling for money, regard this as a compliment.

One father was complaining in the presence of another father of the fact that his son was costing him so much. He had to have money for clothes, books, car fare, lunch, etc. It was a burden. The other father remarked, "My boy does not cost me a dollar. I wish I could spend something on him." "Why does he not cost you?" asked the first father. "Because," replied the second father, "we lost him a few months ago." That father would give all his money to have that boy back with him to hear his laughter and good cheer. Things that are alive demand revenue.

The church will always need money to carry on her program for the Lord. Pastor's salary, Sunday School literature, building and repairs, missions—associational, state, home and foreign—Old Minister's Relief, the Orphanage, Christian education and benevolences of all kinds should be attended to. It is hard, yea impossible, to care for such financial needs with a poor plan. It is easy, extremely easy to care for them in the Lord's way.

The Lord's plan, the tithe as a minimum, will give us ample revenue for all our needs, and will bring about a new day for our churches.
—From God's Plan.
